Check this out!
Our shelves are full and we are unable to accept any more donations at this time. We are going to do an inventory in the next few months to see what is being circulated and what is not. Feel free to use the back of renewal forms to make suggestions of books you would like to see in the Library. You can donate to the Bryan County Baptist Association or Goodwill. P.S. We have lots of AR books ready for the kids.

Thank you...

Never are we more aware of how much friends and family mean than at the time of bereavement. Your thoughtfulness did so much to ease our pain.

Thank you to our church family.

Love Offering Taken

Fall is off to a great start at FBC and I want to let you know about an important date in the near future. On Sunday morning, September 30, our Transition Team is going to make an important report to the church. We have drafted a letter that we believe Christ would send to our church based on the model of what we studied in the book of Revelation. On this Sunday morning a member of the team will read the letter in the service. Because we want the entire church family to hear this together we are altering our morning schedule for this day. Life groups will meet at 9:00 am and we will have a joint worship service at 10:15. Thanks for your understanding and I look forward to that day. I also wanted to remind you about the reception to honor Garret and Tonnie this Sunday evening for their service at youth minister. We will meet in the fellowship hall following the 6:00 pm activities for food and fellowship. We are also receiving a love offering to express our gratitude for their faithful service. Honored to serve with you.
